

ADRES DOCTORAL CONFERENCE

Marseille, 19th and 20th of January 2012

The organizing committee has the pleasure of inviting you to the 2012 Annual Doctoral Conference of the Association for the Development of Research in Economics and Statistics (ADRES). This year the event will take place at GREQAM, Centre de la Vieille Charité in Marseille, on January 19th and 20th.

The Conference aims at stimulating exchanges between PhD students, young doctors, postdoc and invited experienced researchers coming from French and European research centers, Universities and Business Schools to discuss scientific results, start collaboration and get in touch for future academic positions. The conference will include plenary sessions with two keynote speakers and (approx 75) contributed paper sessions.

SUBMISSION OF PAPERS

Both theoretical and applied papers on all topics in economics and econometrics are encouraged. Participation at this conference will be subject to a selection process on the criteria of the quality of submitted papers. The Doctoral Conference is intended primarily for PhD students or young doctors in economics who plan to apply soon for an academic position at a University, at a Business School or in a Research Institution in France and more broadly in Europe. Applicants should be aware of the French system of certification ("qualification") for applying to a teaching position in a French University. Papers and communications are supposed to be in English.
